

ACCREDITATIONS, INSTITUTIONAL RECOGNITIONS AND MEMBERSHIPS

1. Introduction

The Master's and MBA programs at Barcelona Executive Business School are developed within an international academic environment focused on excellence, innovation, and high-level professional education.

The institution maintains academic partnerships, institutional recognitions, and active participation in international higher education networks and associations to ensure quality standards, global projection, and continuous improvement across all programs.

This document outlines the main academic accreditations, collaborations, and institutional memberships associated with the school's academic programs.

2. Academic Endorsements and Institutional Recognition

Partner Universities

The programs are supported through academic collaborations with universities integrated into the European Higher Education Area (EHEA), ensuring alignment with European academic standards.

- Universidad Católica San Antonio de Murcia (UCAM)

The Catholic University of Murcia (UCAM) is an official Spanish university recognized within the European Higher Education Area (EHEA). Its academic collaboration strengthens academic supervision, educational quality, and the international orientation of the programs.

- Universidad Católica de Ávila (UCAV)

The Catholic University of Ávila (UCAV) is an official Spanish university integrated into the EHEA. Its academic participation contributes to the development of programs focused on academic excellence, educational coherence, and continuous improvement.

International Academic Collaborations

- Blackwell Global University

Barcelona Executive Business School maintains an international academic collaboration with Blackwell Global University, reinforcing the global dimension of its programs and promoting academic exchange and international business perspectives.

3. Memberships and Academic Networks

The institution actively participates in national and international academic associations and networks committed to quality in higher education and business education.

- Spanish Association of Business Schools (AEEN)

Membership in AEEN reflects the institution's commitment to academic excellence, professional ethics, and continuous improvement in business education.

- European Union of Private Higher Education

As a member of EUPHE, the institution is part of a European network of private higher education institutions focused on academic cooperation, best-practice exchange, and international development.

4. Commitment to Academic Quality

The accreditations, collaborations, and institutional memberships contribute to:

- Ensuring academic standards aligned with the EHEA
- Strengthening the internationalization of programs
- Promoting innovation and continuous improvement
- Enhancing connections with international business and professional environments

- Supporting employability and executive development

These elements are integrated into the institution's Internal Quality Assurance System and are subject to periodic review and monitoring.

5. Institutional Commitment

Barcelona Executive Business School maintains an ongoing commitment to:

- Academic excellence
- Institutional transparency
- Educational innovation
- Internationalization
- Continuous improvement of its academic programs and services

Institutional accreditations and memberships form an essential part of the institution's academic strategy and international positioning.